

August 25, 2014

Community contribution recognised

Castlehaven was named a winner in the Sydney Hills Business Awards for Community Contribution, recognising the real estate agency's extensive support of local groups including Castle Hill United Football Club and Samuel Gilbert Public School.

Collecting the award, Castlehaven General Manager Deb Newton said the Hills district was a wonderful place to live, work and raise a family.

"At Castlehaven we often think about how lucky we are to live in this very special community," Ms Newton said.

"As a team, we often ask ourselves, in what meaningful ways can we contribute?"

Castlehaven is a long-term sponsor of Castle Hill United, this year they became the main sponsor of the Samuel Gilbert Great Fete and they are regular supporters of charity events at Castle Hill Country Club.

Castlehaven was named a winner in the business category alongside Robert Cliff Jewellers. In the individual section Hills Shire Times journalist Bev Jordan was named a winner.

"Being recognised for our community contribution was, of course, a wonderful honour but meeting so many other like-minded individuals and businesses was the highlight of the night. There are just so many people who really support the Hills and get behind the many wonderful charities and non-profit organisations which are so instrumental to the spirit of our community," Ms Newton said.

Media inquiries: Sharon Hogan 0421 619 097